

2002 Annual Report

Alaskans' Cache for the Future

This report is available on the Internet

Dedication

This year's annual report is dedicated to the prior directors of the Permanent Fund Dividend Division: Ervin Jones (1988 – 1991); Thomas C. Williams (1991 – 1995); and Nanci A. Jones (1995 – 2003). From the time the Permanent Fund Dividend Division was formed as a division in 1988, these directors have shaped the division and its policies toward excellence in public service. Under their direction, the division has grown to achieve many milestones through implementation of programs and technologies, such as the direct-deposit program and an Internet online dividend application. The directors' dedication and hard work to the dividend program has made the division an organization that all Alaskans can take pride in.

Since the dividend program's inception in 1982, the Permanent Fund Dividend Division (and staff prior to the division's formation in 1988) have processed over 11.5 million applications and paid nearly $12 billion in dividends to Alaskans.

This annual report provides information and data on the Permanent Fund Dividend program for calendar year 2002. The 2002 dividend application period was January 2 through April 1, 2002. Alaskans who were residents of the state for the entire calendar year 2001 and met other requirements were eligible for a 2002 dividend.

This report includes highlights and data related to the PFD program for 2002 and historical data for prior years.

Executive Summary Section

This section provides an overview of highlights and accomplishments of the dividend program for 2002. It includes the dividend calculation and dividend activity for 2002 in comparison with prior year activity. This section also summarizes new Permanent Fund Dividend legislation enacted into law in 2002.

Detailed data and information specific to dividend activities are included in other sections of this report.

2002 in Retrospect

The 2002 dividend continued the downward trend since the record high dividend in 2000. Despite the trend, the 2002 dividend was the third highest dividend ($1,540.86) since the program's inception in 1982. The PFD Division saw increases in many other respects to the dividend program. During 2002, the division processed a record number of applications, paid a record number of dividends, and processed a record number of direct deposits.

Following are highlights and accomplishments of the division during 2002.

- Record Number of Applications – The number of applications grew slightly to 611,972 in 2002, up from 608,394 in 2001. The growth corresponds to an increase in the state's population. Correspondingly, the division paid a record number of dividends. The division paid 587,518 dividends in 2002 compared to 586,116 dividends in 2001.
- Record Direct Deposits – The upward trend of direct deposit for dividend payments continued in 2002. A record 76.8% of applicants requested direct deposit, up from 75.4% in 2001. The total number of applicants who requested direct deposit for 2002 was 470,007, up from 458,848 for 2001. Direct deposits were posted to applicant accounts on October 9, 2002. Of the 470,007 requests, 430,894 or 70.4% of applicants qualified for direct deposit. The total amount of direct deposit was over $642.4 million.
- Record Online Applications – The division developed and implemented a new web-based program for filing a 2002 dividend application. For the 2002 online application, the division implemented a session-based application that does not require downloading software for filing as in the previous year. The new online application program was restricted to applicants who had received a prior year dividend and were not absent from the state for more than 90 days. During the 2002 application period, the division received 80,518 online applications, up from 48,994 online applications filed in 2001.
- Record Assignments – The division processed and paid a record number of assignments from applicants who assigned all or part of their dividend to pay a debt to a governmental agency. The division received just over 6,500 assignments, of which 3,155 assignments totaling $3.6 million were paid to assignees. There was a dramatic increase in assignment to housing authorities.
- Improved Receipt Notification – Beginning with the 2002 dividend, the division enhanced its format for notifying applicants that the division had received their application. Previously, applicants received a postcard with limited information about their application. The postcard was replaced with an information letter with expanded applicant information, including direct-deposit and college savings check-off information. The new letter format gives applicants the opportunity to change any incorrect information and avoid potential problems when the dividend is paid in the fall.

Executive Summary

- Reduction in Review Cases. The division implemented new procedures to reduce the number of cases in review status. The division looked at criteria used for resolving cases initially flagged by the computer for review and determined that clerical staff could work less complex cases. The new procedures avoid cases from going into review inventory and having to be in line with more complex cases. As a result, review cases at the end of 2002 were significantly less than 2001. The review inventory at the close of 2002 was 2,492 cases, compared to 7,706 cases at the close of 2001.

- Steps toward Electronic Signature. The division is working with Department of Administration officials toward implementing an electronic signature that would be used as part of the online application process. Once the electronic signature is in place, applicants can “sign” their online application electronically and will no longer have to print and mail a signature page. The electronic signature may be implemented late in the 2003 application period.

New Legislation

The 2002 legislature passed one bill directly related to the dividend program. Governor Knowles signed the bill into law on June 27, 2002.

HB 305 (Ch 89 SLA 2002) – Military Selective Service Registration Requirement. This bill amended the eligibility criteria for receiving a dividend under AS 43.23.005(a) by requiring young men to register with the Selective Service Administration. Young men ages 18 through 25 must be registered with Selective Service to receive a dividend, beginning with the 2004 dividend. Since the qualifying year for the 2004 dividend is the prior calendar year, young men will have to meet registration requirements in 2003. Young men who fail to meet registration requirements will be notified by the Permanent Fund Dividend Division and given an opportunity to comply with the requirements before being determined ineligible for a dividend.

The Department of Revenue uses an estimate because some applications are in review or incomplete as of the dividend calculation date. A number of these applications will be determined as payable after review or when applicants submit information needed to determine their eligibility. Also, some application types have extended filing due dates until March 31, 2003, such as estate and disabled applicants.

Notes

- 1) Population generally exceeds number of applications because applicants must be a resident for an entire year before they qualify for a dividend.
- 2) The number 1982 applications represents accumulated data from 1979 through 1982, the first year that dividends were paid. Dividends were not paid prior to 1982 because of litigation challenging residency requirements of the dividend statutes in effect at the time.

Organization and Responsibilities

During 2002, the Permanent Fund Dividend Division was staffed by 93 positions comprised of 59 full-time, 4 seasonal and 30 temporary positions (primarily employed for data entry). The division is headquartered in Juneau and has offices in Anchorage and Fairbanks. The division's Fiscal Year 2003 operating budget is $5.277 million. The division is organized into two components: Operations, and Dividend Enforcement, Review and Appeals.

OPERATIONS

Operations is responsible for receiving and processing dividend applications, processing dividend payments, and providing assistance to Alaskans who need help with their application or have questions regarding the dividend program.

Operations is organized into four units: Document Processing and Image Control, Data Entry, Dividend Information Offices, and Data Processing.

Document Processing and Image Control is responsible for (1) receiving, preparing and scanning dividend applications for data entry, and (2) processing applications that are incomplete or flagged by the division's computer system as requiring further attention. All applications and documentation are scanned and saved as electronic images. Employees throughout the division have access to the images for all functions, from data entry to helping applicants with questions concerning their application.

Document Processing and Image Control processes thousands of pieces of mail other than applications. Throughout the year, applicants submit documentation requested by the division to complete their application for processing.

Data Entry is responsible for entering application data and garnishments into the computer system. Data Entry is also responsible for providing accounting support and collecting dividends from persons who were deemed ineligible after having been paid a dividend.

The division employed 30 temporary employees to data enter 2002 dividend applications received during the filing season (January through March 2002).

Dividend Information Offices are responsible for assisting applicants who need help with completing their application or responding to information requests by the division. Information offices are located in Anchorage, Fairbanks and Juneau.

Information office staff assists applicants in person, by telephone, letter or e-mail. Each year, information office employees assist thousands of walk-ins and answer thousands of telephone calls and emails from applicants seeking assistance or requesting application forms.

Data Processing is responsible for writing and maintaining programs related to the division's databases and providing the division with data processing support. Data

Permanent Fund Dividend Division History

- 1976 Voters pass a constitutional amendment to establish the Permanent Fund (Alaska Constitution, Article IX, Section 15).
- 1980 First Permanent Fund dividend legislation enacted. The legislation established a program giving every adult Alaska resident $50 for every year of residency since statehood in 1959 and also established a Dividend Fund. Payment of dividends were stayed under litigation (Zobel v Williams) challenging the constitutionality of the program.
- 1982 U.S Supreme Court ruled the 1980 legislation unconstitutional. In response to the litigation, the legislature passed legislation authorizing equal dividend payments to all six-month residents. The first dividend amount was $1,000. The first dividend checks were distributed June 14, 1982.
- 1983 Residency period defined as 6 months ending March 31. Filing due date established as June 30.
- 1985 Hold-harmless program funding for public assistance recipients changed from General Fund to Permanent Fund Dividend Fund.
- 1988 January 1988 - Permanent Fund Dividend Division established. Positions with PFD responsibilities in Administrative Services (20), Enforcement (23), and Public Services (14) transferred to the new division. Enforcement and Public Services divisions eliminated.
57 full-time positions after transfer.
32 non-permanent positions.
- 1989 Legislature changed residency period from 6 months to 24 months. Individuals banned from assigning dividends (except to government agencies) by regulation. Felons not eligible for dividends. Physical presence requirement established.
57 full-time positions.
54 non-permanent positions.
- 1990 Superior Court ruled 24-month residency requirement unconstitutional and changed the residency requirement to 12 months (Lindly v Malone). Disclosure requirements established to print program costs on dividend checks.
59 full-time positions.
56 non-permanent positions.
- 1991 Check-off program for Advance College Tuition started. Percent of dividend subject to levy for private judgments increased from 50% to 55%. Fairbanks office closed in September 1991 (2 positions). One position each transferred to Anchorage and Juneau office. First receipt cards mailed.
58 full-time positions.
54 non-permanent positions.
- 1992 Individuals banned from assigning dividends (except to government agencies) by statute. Review Unit moved from Anchorage to Juneau.
58 full-time positions.
58 non-permanent positions.
- 1993 Direct-deposit program for full dividends established. Residency period changed to calendar year. Voter registration forms included with dividend application.
62 full-time positions.
62 non-permanent positions.
- 1994 Filing due date changed to March 31. Longevity Bonus Annuity check-off program began. Legislature authorizes the division to charge fee for processing claims and assignments on dividends
61 full-time positions.
58 non-permanent positions.
- 1995 Longevity Bonus Annuity check-off program repealed.
61 full-time positions.
63 non-permanent positions.
- 1996 Misdemeanants with two prior crimes not eligible for dividends.
59 full-time positions.
62 non-permanent positions.

Permanent Fund Dividend Division History

- 1997 Fairbanks office re-opened February 1997 (2 positions).
59 full-time positions.
62 non-permanent positions.
- 1998 Internet program implemented to allow applicants to check their status online. All allowable absences defined in statutes (statutory provision for commissioner to define absences by regulation repealed). Spouses accompanying eligible residents authorized as allowable absence. Authority to file for estates (persons who die during filing period) established. Physical presence changed to 72 hours every two years (effective for 2000 dividend). Percent of dividend subject to levy for private judgment increased from 55% to 80%.
60 full-time positions.
62 non-permanent positions.
- 1999 Internet application implemented, but applicants required to print and sign full application. Direct-deposit program expanded to include partial dividends. Document Processing Unit night shift (17 positions) eliminated. Emergency regulations detailing alien eligibility adopted.
57 full-time positions.
43 non-permanent positions.
- 2000 Imaging system and new data entry system implemented January 2000. First year that applications imaged. Improved online Internet application implemented March 2000 (applicants required to sign signature page only). Fairbanks office moved to Cushman Street location September 1.

30 non-permanent positions.
- 2002 Receipt letter replaces application receipt card. Department of Health and Social Services files applications electronically. Final year securities companies participated in the direct-deposit program. Misdemeanants with one prior felony or two prior misdemeanors not eligible for dividend.
63 full-time positions.

Dividend Application Information

The dividend application filing season begins on January 2. Within a couple of days, thousands of applications pour into the division by mail and hand delivery. Within the first week of the application period, the division typically receives around 90,000 applications. The weeks that follow are hectic and busy as the division processes the thousands of applications that are received throughout the season. After the end of the filing season, the division will have received about 612,000 applications.

In order to complete the tasks that come with the application season, the division employs temporary employees to key information from paper applications. These employees start during the first part of January and continue their work through mid-May, when the last of the applications are data captured and processed. A small number of the temporary employees are retained through July to process documentation submitted by applicants who filed incomplete applications.

This section includes data and information relating to applications received during the filing season and the remainder of the year (mostly late applications). Applicant demographics included in this section are compiled from 2002 PFD application data.

Dividend Payment Information

The dividend payment season begins well before the first dividend payments are paid to applicants in October. The payment season actually begins in August, when the division starts to coordinate direct deposit transactions with banks and financial institutions participating in the direct deposit program.

In September, the division begins the task of calculating the dividend amount that will be announced by the commissioner of Revenue later in the month. Because there are still applications pending review or completion, the division estimates the total number of applicants who will ultimately qualify for a dividend and takes other factors into consideration when calculating the dividend. The dividend calculation is included in the executive summary section of this report.

Immediately following the dividend announcement by the commissioner, the division compiles payment data to go to financial institutions (for direct deposit) and the state Department of Administration (for direct-deposit notices and dividend checks). Processing begins before the first payment date in October to allow ample time for printing and mailing the large volume of dividend notices and checks. Direct-deposit notices are printed first so that all direct-deposit recipients receive notification before they are paid in early October. Checks are mailed to eligible applicants in mid-October.

This section includes data and information related to the payment of dividends in 2002. In addition to payment of 2002 dividends, the division paid prior year dividends in 2002 due primarily to clearance of an inventory of 2001 applications resolved through review and appeals. Some prior-year dividends were also paid from applications filed by individuals who turned 18 years old and did not receive a dividend during a prior year.

The division issues dividends for prior years for two primary reasons:

1. Most 2001 dividends issued in 2002 resulted from resolution of applications in review or appeal at the close of 2001.
2. Prior year 18-year-old filers. Alaska Statute 43.23.055 authorizes individuals who hadn't received a dividend during their minority to apply for that dividend when they turn 18 or become emancipated. These applicants must meet eligibility requirements and apply for the prior-year dividend within one year of their 18th birthday.

Other reasons: Disabled adults and estates have an extended filing date of one year later than other applicants.

Note 1: Beginning 1999, Permanent Fund Dividend Division implemented partial direct deposit. For 1993 through 1998, applicants qualified for direct deposit only if they received the full dividend amount.

Note 2: Applicants may not qualify for direct deposit because their bank account was closed or their direct deposit information was incomplete. (For 1993 through 1998, applicants did not qualify for direct deposit if they were garnisheed).

Dividend Garnishments Summary

Under state statutes, up to 80% of a dividend may be garnisheed except that a governmental agency may garnishee up to 100% of a dividend. Any amount in excess of the total amount garnisheed is paid to the applicant.

Legislation establishing the Alaska Education Trust Fund (AS 14.40.807) and authorizing an allowance for applicants to contribute 50% of their dividend to the fund was passed in 1990. The name of the fund was changed in 1991 to the Advance College Tuition (ACT) Payment Fund. The ACT checkoff first appeared on 1991 dividend applications.

In fall 2001, the University of Alaska developed the UA College Savings Plan program as the main program under which persons make contributions toward advanced college tuition costs. The UA College Savings Plan provides different investment strategies to individuals making contributions.

Collections Activity

Collections are from repayments from applicants determined to be ineligible for a dividend after they were paid the dividend. Applicants are assessed 10.5% interest until the dividend is repaid.

Dividend Information Offices

The division's dividend information offices perform crucial services for applicants who need assistance with their applications or have questions regarding the dividend program. Information offices are located in Anchorage, Fairbanks and Juneau. The offices help tens of thousands of Alaskans through walk-in, telephone and e-mail contact.

Peak seasons for the information offices are beginning of January through March (filing season) and September through October (dividend payment season).

In January through March, the offices receive thousands of applications from walk-ins. Employees assist applicants with questions they have about completing applications and provide information about the dividend program. The highest volume of filing occurs the first two weeks of the January and last two weeks of March.

In September through October, employees field inquiries from applicants who want to make sure they are on file and accepted for dividend payment, and those who have questions regarding their dividend, particularly those who are garnisheed and have not received their dividend.

Although activities peak during these times of year, employees still receive thousands of contacts in the off-season. Contacts during the off-season are primarily from applicants who are completing their application because they submitted an incomplete application; either they didn't answer questions, failed to include requested information, or did not include sufficient documentation with their original application.

This section includes data and information related to telephone and counter activities for 2002 and a comparison to 2001 activities.

Dividend Information Office Monthly Activity (Detail by Information Office)

2002 Counter Contacts

Information office employees assist thousands of applicants who walk into the local offices. During 2002, employees assisted about 60,100 applicants.

2002 Telephone Calls

Information office employees respond to thousands of telephone calls each year from applicants requesting assistance. During 2002, employees answered about 107,500 calls.

Two-Year Comparison of Information Office Activity

Counter Contacts

Total counter contacts for 2001 and 2002 were approximately 56,200 and 60,100, respectively. Counter contacts are greatest during March prior to the filing due date. Counter contacts relate to persons seeking assistance for completing their application and inquiring about eligibility.

Telephone Calls

Total telephone calls for 2001 and 2002 were approximately 112,500 and 107,500, respectively. Telephone call activity is greatest in October when dividend payments are made. Calls during this time relate to persons inquiring about the status of their payment or garnishments deducted from their dividend.

Dividend Enforcement, Review and Appeals

The Dividend Enforcement, Review and Appeals Unit works inventories of applications that require further scrutiny by the division and involve appeals from applicants whose dividends were denied.

Employees review individual applications flagged during application processing. Employees make eligibility determinations from information submitted with the application and subsequent correspondence with applicants. They consider residency, intent to remain an Alaska resident, absences and physical presence in the state when making determinations. If staff determines that an individual is not eligible for a dividend, the employee will issue a decision letter notifying the applicant that his or her dividend application has been denied. The letter also notifies the applicant of his or her right to appeal the decision.

Employees assigned appeals caseloads conduct informal appeal conferences for applicants who disagree with their denial. Employees review each appeal and develop facts and information relating to matters in dispute by the applicant. They issue written decisions to applicants upon conclusion of an informal conference. If the applicant disagrees with the informal conference decision, the applicant may request a formal hearing. A designated employee represents the division at formal hearings.

The unit also fields fraud tips from individuals who are suspicious of an applicant's eligibility to receive a dividend.
